If the letter is not in the student's folder when the committee meets, they will not grant a scholarship.

16. Provide a copy of the fall schedule of classes to the committee by the scholarship deadline.

If awarded a Sacred Music Scholarship, I understand that:

- Checks will be made to the institution of higher learning and not to the individual. You will need to provide an address for the appropriate office.
- You will need to re-apply each year for the scholarship and meet eligibility requirements.
- You must maintain full-time status.
- You may be required or asked to share your musical talent in an FBC worship service. This would be coordinated with the Minister of Worship or other staff member.

By signing below, you are indicating that you have completed this application accurately and understand and agree to all expectations.
